AdvaMed Code of Ethics

Please note: Smith & Nephew, Inc. and its agents adhere to the AdvaMed Code of Ethics. The AdvaMed Code of Ethics limits attendance at company sponsored events to healthcare professionals with a bona fide professional interest. Visit the AdvaMed website at www.advamed.org to review this policy

Sunshine Law

Under the federal "Sunshine Law", all medical device and pharmaceutical manufacturers, including Smith & Nephew, are required to track and report payments and transfers of value provided to US-licensed physicians and teaching hospitals annually. The information must be submitted to the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) by March 31. CMS then posts the reported data on their Open Payments website, which is a publicly available website. Smith & Nephew is committed to full compliance with the Sunshine law. In order to comply, we will report payments and transfers of value provided to US-licensed physicians including the following as required by the Sunshine Law:

- Transportation expenses
- Lodging or accommodations
- Meals
- Other items that have an independent value
- Certain educational materials (e.g. medical textbooks and journal reprints; Smith & Nephew published items are not reportable)

For more information on the Sunshine Law, please visit CMS National Physician Payment Transparency Program Open Payments web page at <http://www.cms.gov/Regulations-and-Guidance/Legislation/National-Physician-Payment-Transparency-Program/Physician-Subpage.html>

Vermont Licensed Healthcare Practitioners

Please note that all Vermont Licensed Healthcare practitioners are required to sign a Letter of Agreement. If you do not receive a Letter of Agreement prior to attending this course, please see the meeting planner upon arrival at the course.

US Government Employees

Attendance by Federal, State or local US Officials requires the approval of the employing agency.
